

Australian Institute of Landscape Designers & Managers

AILDLM with the support of AIH, AILA, LCA, NGINA, HMA is pleased to present

Global Warming - The Landscape Challenge

a series of seminars for all enterprises affiliated with Landscape, Horticulture and Architecture designed to

- *raise awareness of global warming and its impact on our work and work practices
- *develop practical, sustainable strategies to meet the challenge

Venue: Bailey Hall, 409 Victoria Avenue, Chatswood

Date: Thursday 17th May, 2007

Time: 1:30pm – 6:00pm (registration from 12:45pm)

Our speakers for the first event are;

1. Lis Bastian - presenting Al Gore's 'Inconvenient Truth' in her own way.
2. Peter Andrews of 'Natural Sequence Farming' talking about his methods of naturally enriching the land with water and nutrients by working with nature rather than against. This leads to greater fertility, better growth.....and sequestering of carbon.
3. Michael Kiely of the Carbon Coalition.....another farmer, a very humorous speaker whose talk is based on the soil, 'a place of 24 hour, 7days a week partying, a veritable orgy of sex, drugs and rock, all leading to a massive volume of carbon sequestration'.

Cost including afternoon tea (incl.GST)
